This worksheet will help you research and learn the causes of the First World War. War broke out in late summer 1914, but tension had been building in Europe since 1900. You need to complete the different tasks to help you work out why the war started.

TASK 1: make sure you know the terms.

1. Using the glossary at the top right of this sheet, copy and complete this table. Write these terms down carefully, as you will use them later!

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Militarism</th>
<th>Alliances</th>
<th>Imperialism</th>
<th>Nationalism</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

2. Germany wanted to build up her Empire. Copy and complete:
   - Germany wished to build up her Empire. This is known as ________________.
   - Germany also built up her armed forces - known as ________________.

3. Britain had both the most powerful navy in the world and the largest Empire. Copy and complete:
   - As Britain had the most powerful navy she was worried about other countries building up their armed forces. We could call this a worry about ________________.
   - Germany, Britain and other countries were keen to have large Empires.

4. Copy and try to fill in the missing words using your table:
   - Countries in Europe were very proud of themselves, and would defend their country as well as they could. This is known as ________________.
TASK 2: create a diagram showing the alliances.

1. By 1900, Europe was divided into two alliances. Using your blank map of Europe, together with the OHP or textbook:
   - Draw in the borders of the European Countries
   - Write in the names of the major countries
   - Colour in the countries - one colour for the Triple Alliance, - one colour for the Triple Entente
   - Make sure you have a key, so your map makes sense

2. Using your own map, copy and fill in the table below:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ALLIANCES</th>
<th>COUNTRIES IN THE ALLIANCE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Triple Entente</td>
<td>France,</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Triple Alliance</td>
<td>Austro-Hungary,</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

3. Using the word box on the right, write out the following text, adding in the words.

   Europe was divided into two __________. These were called the Triple _______ and the Triple _______. Members of each alliance promised to fight for the other members if they were attacked. It would only take a small incident to spark a war that involved the whole of ______.

   Germany had been trying to build up her navy and her empire. B______ was ________ about this. Both countries raced each other to build the best navy. There was tension between the two countries. This cause was __________.

The area south and south-east of ______-_______ was known as the Balkans. This whole area was very unstable. The European Alliances had different ideas how to deal with the problems.
